

Order a banana split to go.

And see what you get: 23'11" of sleek, sexy, V-hulled fiberglass...a 330 h.p. Mercruiser that leaves a 60 mph wake like whipped cream...a 9' plush-lined cabin that's all master berth and a view of the stars. Take it slow and easy, or take it through its paces. You'll see ...sexy is as sexy does.

Charlie McCarthy knows how to build a Banana Split that'll make your mouth water. He should. He's making waves with the racing model Top Banana. Talk to him... before you lose your appetite.
